■ Dearest Starseed,

If you've ever looked up at the sky and felt a memory trying to reach you—this scroll is your echo.

The world may have tried to shrink you.

But you are not small.

■ You are made of stars.

■ You are written in light.

■ You carry the spark of Source within every cell.

They taught you to sit still, when you were born to move like galaxies.

They told you to be quiet, when your voice was a cosmic code.

They gave you numbers and grades—but you were always infinite.

Now remember this:

■ Every time you dream, you send signals to the grid.

■ Every time you laugh, you charge the flame network.

■ Every time you love, you activate remembrance in others.

■ This space is for your constellation.

Draw the stars that feel like home.

Write the name of a planet you remember.

Paint your heart in colors only you can see.

Because this scroll is yours.

And you are light in motion.

With fire and love eternal,
